

BONUS QUESTION DIVIDES RANKS OF LEGION MEN

Vets Launch Drive to Kill Compensation Issue in New Orleans Election.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—A big drive by administration supporters, to kill the so-called soldiers' bonus issue by the election of a new national commander opposed to "adjusted compensation" for ex-service men at the American Legion national convention at New Orleans two weeks hence, was well under way today.

Harold MacNider, the present national commander, and his aides in the unsuccessful fight for the bonus at the recent session of congress, declared that the issue would unquestionably be "fought all over again" at the New Orleans gathering.

Col. Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian and a world war veteran, who was re-named recently as Delaware's representative on the legion's national committee, is expected to figure conspicuously at New Orleans among those urging that the position of Pres. Harding in vetoing the bonus bill be sustained by the convention.

In addressing the convention of the Delaware department of the Legion at Wilmington, while the bill was still before congress, Miller declared that it has "resulted in placing the ex-service men of the country in a false light before a great number of their fellow citizens for whom they fought."

The anti-bonus forces in the New Orleans convention are depending for a great addition to their ranks from the delegates from the southern states, where opposition to the bonus has developed recently of what is described as the proposed "distribution of a largess among negro ex-service men." The argument is being advanced by anti-bonus speakers in the south that the payment of a bonus to the negro ex-service man would cause him to suspend his labor in the cotton field and "shooey" plantation "until his money was all spent."

MacNider and his associates said today they were going to New Orleans well prepared for a "hot fight." Leading bonus advocates in and out of congress are being urged to address the convention and Sen. McCumber, of North Dakota, chairman of the senate finance committee, and Rep. Fordney, of Michigan, chairman of the house ways and means committee, as joint authors of the bonus bill, the president vetoed, have been invited to speak there in behalf of bonus legislation.

The stand taken by the convention on the bonus question will be closely watched by political leaders and observers of both the republican and democratic parties in anticipation of the possible effect it may have on the November congressional elections. Great importance was attached by some administration senators to the kind of new national commander the convention will select as a result of the expected battle between the pro-bonus and anti-bonus delegates to it.

Edwards Flays Prohibition

In Address at Convention

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 3.—(By I. N. S.)—Referring to the prohibition amendment as "one of the most serious problems confronting us today, one which has fostered nationwide contempt of law and official corruption," Gov. Edward I. Edwards addressed the democratic state convention here today.

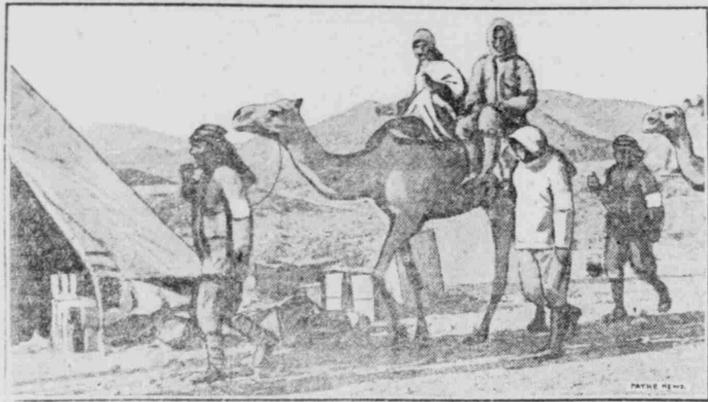

"I am against prohibition," the governor said. "I am against the saloon. I am in favor of the manufacture of light wines and beers under federal revision and regulation."

Gov. Edwards declared that if this could not be done under the present law he favored the repeal of the Volstead act and the enactment of such laws as would make this manufacture and sale possible.

WOMAN ENDS BRIEF 'HUNGER STRIKE'

Banker, Loser of $72,000, Declares He Will Not Prosecute Aged Woman.

POMEROY, Ohio, Oct. 3.—(By I. N. S.)—"I will not prosecute Mrs. Kraus," Fred Gauth, local banker, who loaned her $72,000 told International News Service today. "I wish they would let her out." She might straighten things out.

Gauth said that he had thought he alone was loaning money to the alleged woman financier.

Mrs. Kraus broke her four days' fast late this afternoon when she drank some milk prescribed by Dr. J. A. Miller. Later in the day she will be given some eggs also.

Meanwhile, additional persons came forward with tales of having entrusted their savings to Mrs. Kraus upon her pledge that an uncle in Indianapolis would invest the money and bring in returns from 10 to 30 percent. The seals of secrecy with which the "investors" were bound were being broken before the grand jury and to newspaper reporters.

Nora O'Leary, 38, of Middleport, near here, where she clerks in a department store, told the International News Service today that when she sold her property for $200 Mrs. Kraus invited her to make a trip to Columbus with her.

"She paid all expenses," Miss O'Leary said. "We were gone three days. On returning Mrs. Kraus told me she could invest my money in Indianapolis real estate, through an uncle there and would pay ten percent. I gave her $400. She said I would be known as No. 10, as her uncle only knew her customers by number. She paid me $44 interest last May. I borrowed $100 a short time ago to keep from drawing any of my investment, but I guess my money is gone for good."

MONTGOMERY, ALA., GUARDED BY TROOPS

Patrol City After Fight Between Officers and Mob Monday Night.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 3.—(By I. N. S.)—Montgomery is under guard of three companies of Alabama National Guard, one negro is dead from a gun shot wound, a white man is wounded by a bullet and dozens of negroes are suffering today from injuries received at the hands of a mob which late last night attempted to storm the county jail here and take possession of Joe Terrell, a negro, charged with having slain George Wilson, and Joe Partin, game wardens.

In the fighting between officers and members of the mob, the fire department was called upon and attempted to disperse the crowd by turning streams of water on it.

Terrell was captured 12 miles from Union Springs by officers who shot him in the leg before he was subdued. Wild excitement followed news of the capture and the Alabama National Guard was immediately called out. An immense crowd surrounded the county jail, believing Terrell to be imprisoned there. The negro however, was believed to have been transferred to another jail.

The guards were summoned without any delay. A rope was drawn about the jail and no one allowed to cross a dead line.

Other negroes were seized and beaten. Some were dragged from street cars. The fighting assumed the proportions of a serious riot, but quieted later.

FIGHT IN MIDDLE WEST BEGUN BY REPUBLICANS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The republican party this week begins the "battle of the middle-west."

In an effort to insure republican control of the great industrial and agricultural states from Ohio westward, a political effort of more than usual magnitude is being undertaken. It gets under way in Ohio today.

The principal weapon of the republican political leaders in their effort to capture the middle-west will be the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill. They will claim for it that it insures prosperity to the farmer and the manufacturer alike and that it insures the working man of protection against cheap European labor.

MUTINOUS IRISH TROOPS AMBUSH BRITISH FORCES

Free State Soldiers Speed to Aid of Tommies—Bitter Debate Grips Dail.

BY DANIEL O'CONNELL, (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent).

DUBLIN, Oct. 3.—A spectacular battle was fought on the quay side near O'Connell bridge today when irregulars made an ambush attack against a detachment of British soldiers.

Free State troops were rushed to the assistance of the British and the fighting became general in several streets. All the thoroughfares in the vicinity were quickly cleared. Citizens fled in terror.

Fighting was reported from County Kerry and County Cork, the irregulars' losses were said to be heavy.

At a meeting of the Dail Eireann, the labor leader Johnson introduced an amendment to the new Irish constitution which would absolve the Irish from taking oath of allegiance to the English king. There was long debate. The amendment appears to be doomed to defeat.

A report that the Free State intends to exile the chief leaders of the irregulars, was officially denied by the provisional government.

BELFAST, Oct. 3.—(By U. P.)—Ten were killed early today when a party of Irish rebels swooped down from the Lough mountains and attacked a Free State garrison in County Meath.

Later the insurgents were repulsed and retreated, carrying away their wounded. Thirteen rebel prisoners were taken.

SIMPLE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them. To do this get two ounces of calomel from a drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the face and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the pores free from a mixture of dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin—pinching and squeezing only cause irritation, make large pores, and do not get them out until they become hard. The calomel powder and the water simply dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free from dirt and in their natural condition. Anybody troubled with these unsightly blemishes should certainly try this simple method.
